REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-16, 18-20, and 22-24 will be allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not provide for nor suggests providing for as follows:

A device configured to control access to databases storing personal profiles by a plurality of remote entities within a telecommunication network supporting a plurality of services (see, e.g., applicant's published specification paragraph [0014]), the device comprising storing a first plurality of databases and interfaces for managing and centrally controlling access, from any of said remote entities to said first plurality of databases and to a second plurality of databases, wherein a first database of one of the first and second plurality of databases includes a first profile for a user and a second database of one of the first and second plurality of databases includes a second profile for the user, the first profile corresponding to a first service and the second profile corresponding to a second service different from the first service (see, e.g., applicant's published specification paragraph [0025]-[0027]).

The closest prior art (Siegel et al., Patent Publication No. 2002/0143961) discloses a PMT server, coupled with a network connected to various service providers, users and an administrator, includes a preferences manager that is responsible for maintaining the data within the user profiles stored in a database (page 2, paragraph [0024] and [0027]).

Therefore, Siegel does not teach of accessing plurality of databases wherein each database stores a profile of same user associated each different service provided by each different service provider.

For these reasons, in conjunction with the other limitations of the independent claim, puts this case in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
